

21

Hartnell College has had math and English requirements for Certificates of Achievement for at least the last 30 years. This ensures that certificate holders have a minimum level of math and English competency. New certificate level courses have been created in both math and English. Certificates of

