

1. A System wide review of law enforcement officers, firefighter responder training and curriculum. Our system is the majority of law enforcement officers, firefighters and...

...practitioners, local communities and key stakeholders such as the Commission on Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST).

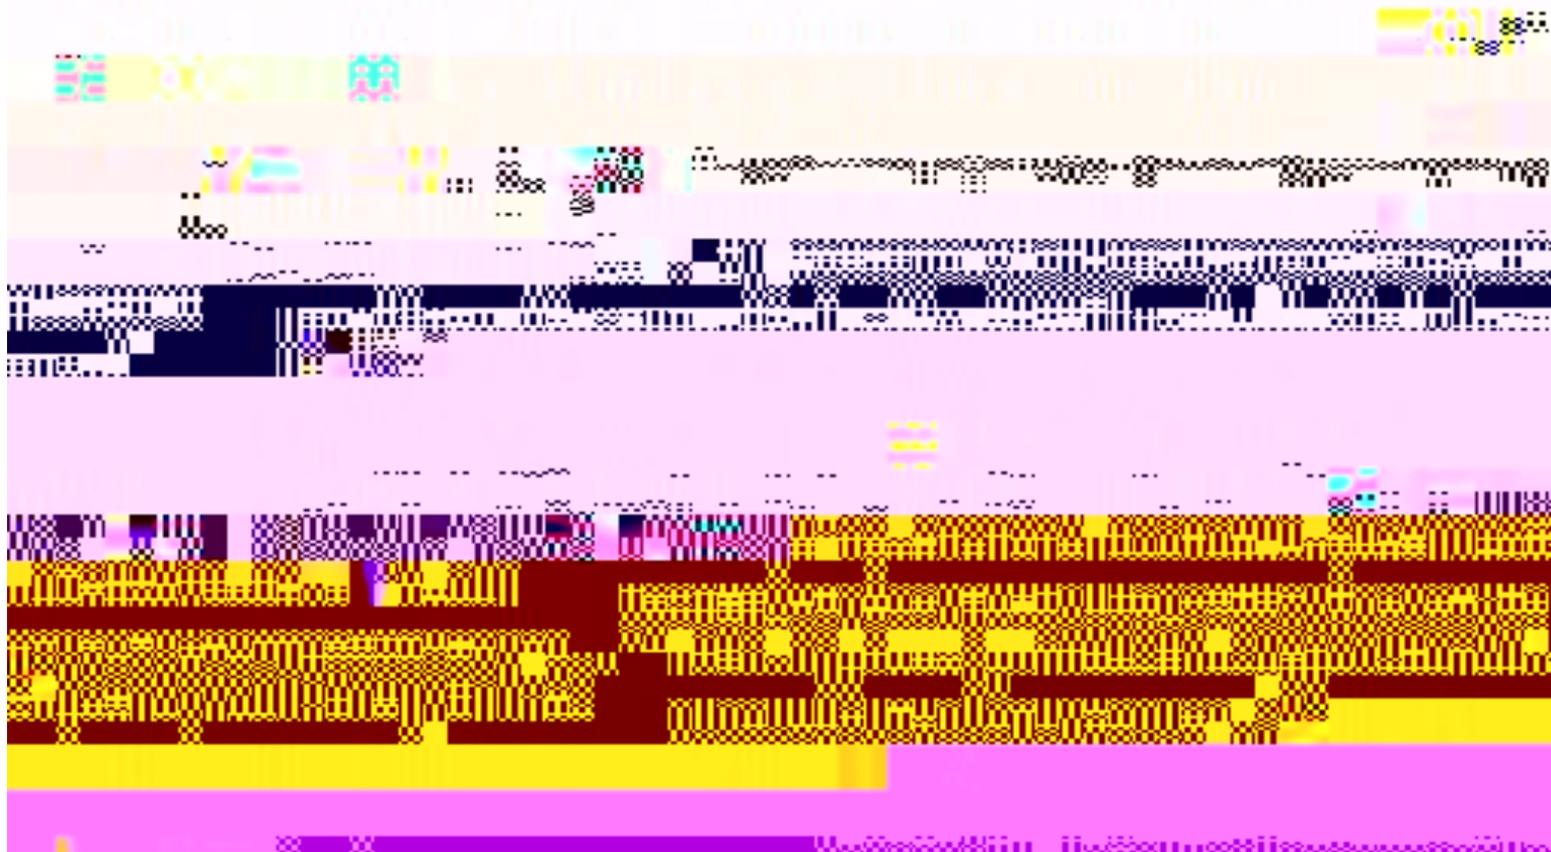

2. Campus leaders must host open dialogue to address campus climate murder of George Floyd, ongoing violence

3. Campuses must audit classroom climate and create an action plan to create inclusive classrooms and anti-racism curriculum. As campus leaders look at instructional officers, chief student service officers, the SCCC, the Student Senate for California Community Colleges (SSCC) and campus student leaders.

4. District Boards review and update your Equity plan

6. Join and engage in the Vision Resource Center “Community for Change.” As an educational community, we all need to continue to invest time to...
The Learning Chancellor's Office has created a virtual community, the Vision Resource Center where content, dialogue and information will be uploaded. Visit visionresourcecenter.cccco.edu. After logging in, under the “Connect” menu, visit “All Communities” and look for “Community Colleges for Change”. Select the community and then click “Join Community” to access the content. This site is open to our entire system.

This call to action does not end here. Our work has just begun. Similar to the Guided Pathways work you have been engaged in, it will take a lot of us to trust, not just conversations, call out structural barriers, present solutions. Continually measure our progress.

webinar recording and resources mentioned by several of the "Call to

