

Salinas Valley Promise program at Hartnell College offers a free year of in-state tuition for first-time, full-time college students who have completed high school or adult school in the Salinas Valley regardless of family income.

How is it different from last year?

- Participation in a summer leadership institute
- Quarterly professional development workshops
- Yearlong mentorship by a local professional
- Free computer or support for books

Program Benefits

2 years of free in-state tuition, regardless of household income

A free computer OR support for books

Participation in a summer leadership institute

Quarterly professional development workshops with fellow Promise students

Mentoring by a local professional

Program Objectives

Incentivize full time enrollment

Decrease cost of attendance

Increase retention and success

Decrease time to completion

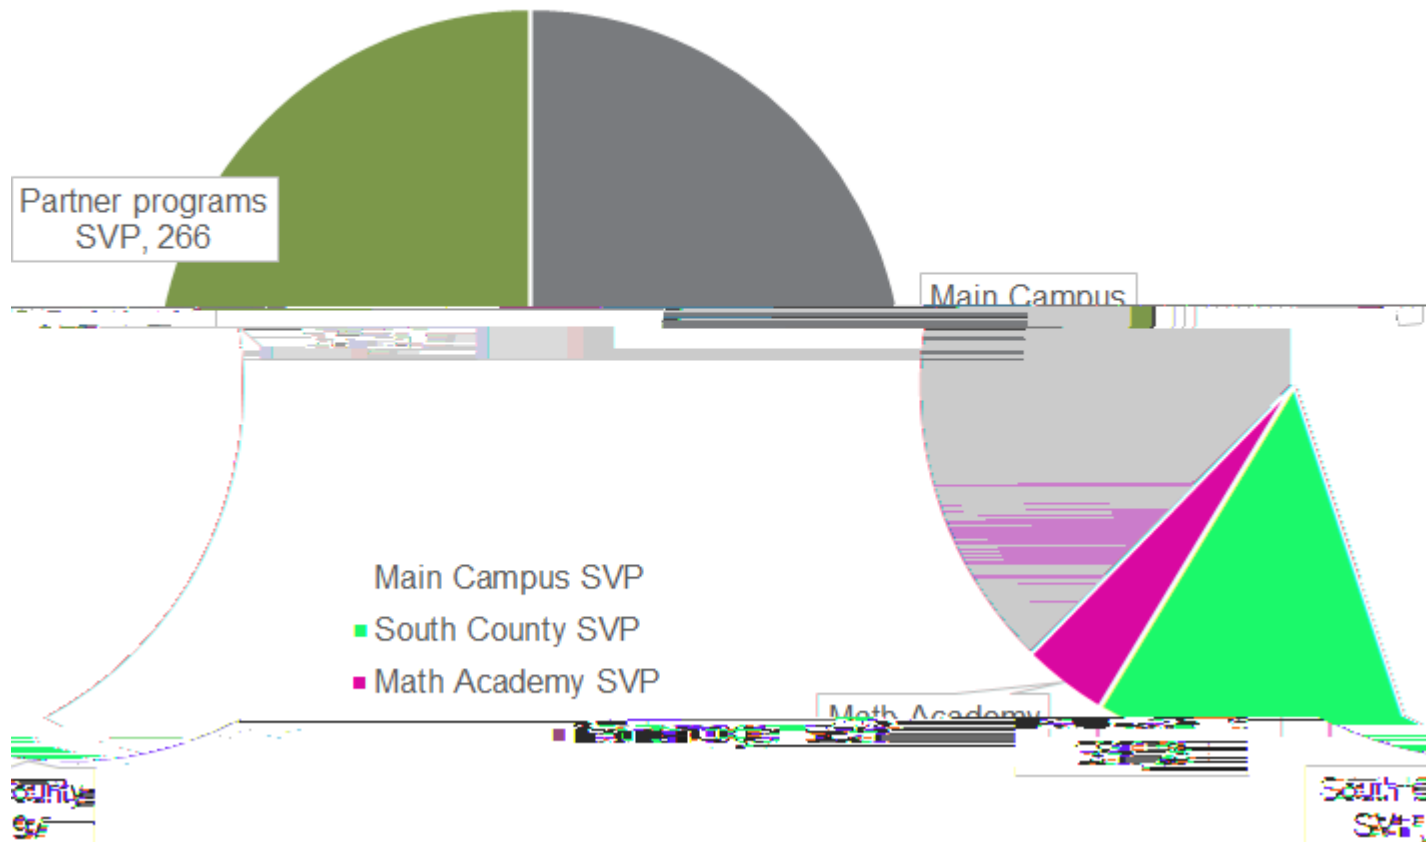

Increase completion

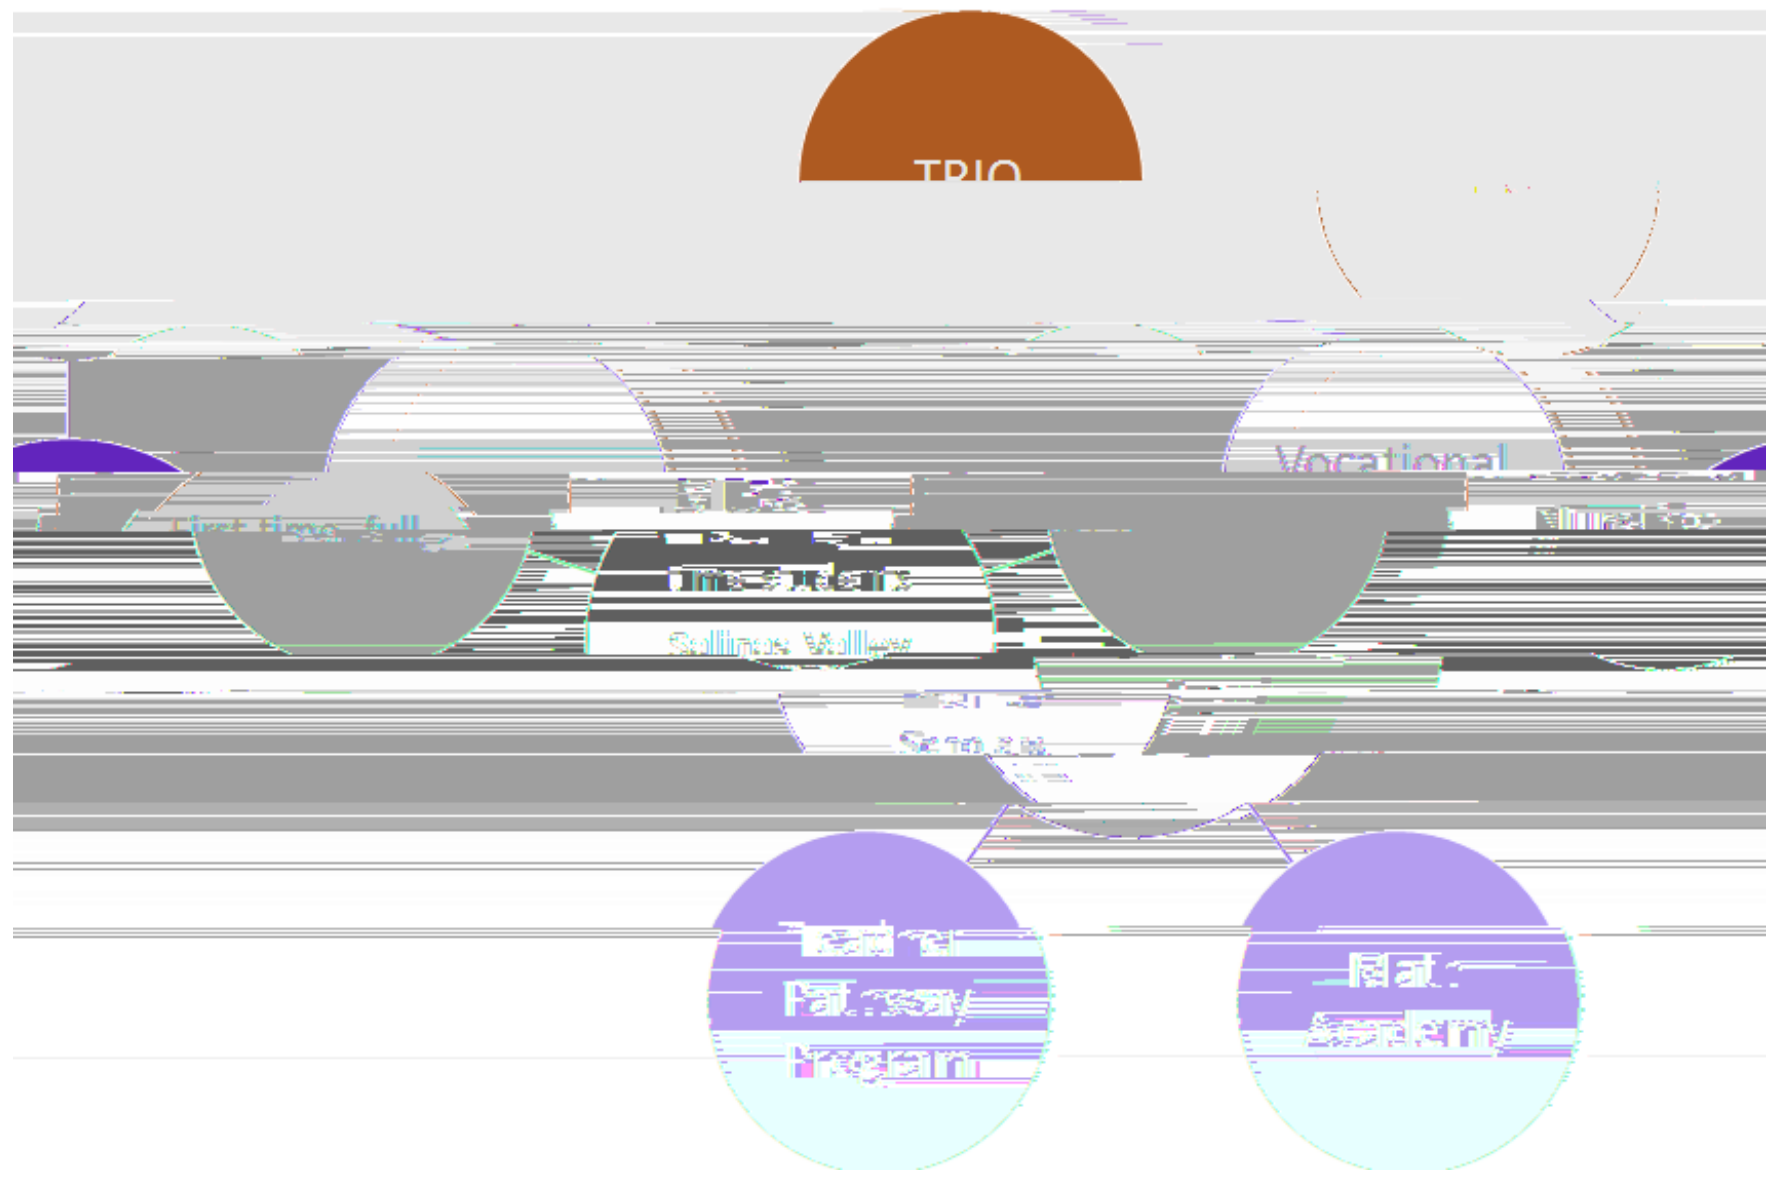

706 Salinas Valley Promise students

560 California Promise grant recipients

146 SVP grant recipients

All students received either laptop or support for books through the SVP

Program Activities

Summer Leadership Institute

Resource fair, financial literacy, teambuilding, Hartnell technology

Professional Development Workshops

Networking, personality assessment, emotional intelligence, goal setting

Mentorship

Students matched with an industry mentor for the year

Your commitment as a mentor will include:

Attending 2 in-person meetings with your mentee(s) hosted at Hartnell

Outreach & Materials

Updated bilingual flyer

More specific steps and requirements

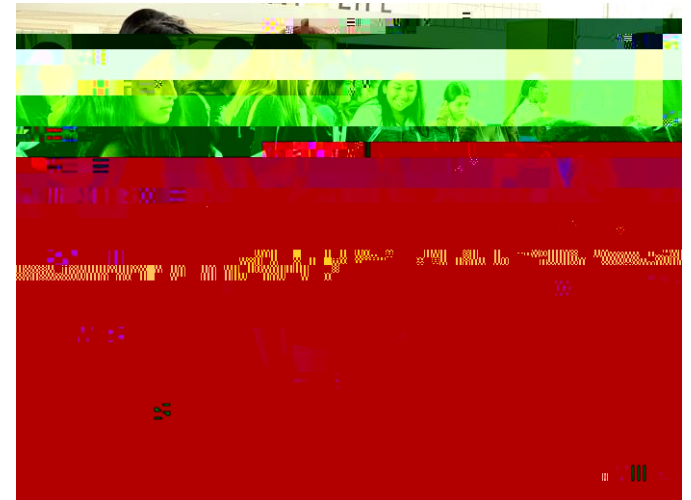

Updated website with more details

hartnell.edu/promise

New program deadline of March 2nd

Working with College Pathways, Financial Aid, and Counseling

High school presentations

Thank you!

HARTNELL COLLEGE

Questions?