Hartnell College will be nationally recognized for the success of our students by developing leaders who will contribute to the social, cultural, and economic vitality of our region and the global community.

HARTNELL COLLEGE MISSION STATEMENT

Focusing on the needs of the Salinas Valley, Hartnell College provides educational opportunities for students to reach academic goals in an environment committed to student learning, achievement and success.

1. Update on Educator-in-Residence visit of Dr. Jean Twenge J. Whitmore

Jean Twenge agreed to come back as our EinR on April 20th and 21st. On the 20th she will have two presentations, one at 3 p.m. and the second one at 6:30 p.m. On the 21st only one presentation at 9 a.m. Janeen already talked to the deans in order for their faculty and students to be able to attend. Also, she will reach out to Susan Ratliff to invite early childhood education students.

2. Report on Travel and Conference activity T. Pyer

Among the 21 applicants, it was clear that some would benefit from training on how to apply. All applications were approved.

We've heard that some classified employees might feel reluctant to present the results of their trips to a large audience, and this might be why we don't receive as many applications from classified personnel as we would like to. To improve the number of classified applicants, Terri suggested some simpler options like, for instance, a picture with the speaker at event and a brief report that could be sent to the president's weekly report.

3. April 7th classified flex program (in progress) T. Pyer

Janeen stated that she had only three requests, since people are completing their flex hours on Canvastraining. In April she is planning to send to all faculty a request for their plans for next year. Also in April she will start the re-4()12(t 1(fah-6(o)-3hT)-4(do005 Tw -7.783 -1.196 Te3 -1.12()12Ma-
