

chance to resubmit it. We will announce that applicants can submit more than one request as long as they keep it at the $1,000 limit per year.

2. Employee Innovation Grant - voting:

J. Whitmore

We received five applications, all from faculty. One of the projects has the same title but four different applicants and four different categories.

The rubrics will be on Google Drive for careful reading and voting. The grants should be analyzed as real innovation projects that support Hartnell. Deadline for voting will be Thursday, September 29, midday.
