MSC: Kimbrough/Ghous to approve minutes of September 19, 2018 as submitted.

1. Presentation on Employee Engagement

Brian Lofman

Dr. Brian Lofman introduced consultant, Jill Christensen. His introduction included Ms. Christensen's work history and accomplishments. He explained that Ms. Christensen was invited to the college to talk about ways in which to engage employees and that this came about because of the newly developed leadership institute and because employee engagement is vital in the overall work of College Re-Design. Prior to meeting with the CPC, Ms. Christensen met with the cabinet (via Skype on Tuesday), the CPC working group to improve dialogue, and the administration team. Ms. Christensen's presentation focused on the following four areas of engagement that would result in a successful
